Ron McNair Camp-In

Saturday, May 30 – Sunday, May 31, 2009

For Boys and Girls, ages 8-12

Presented by Blacks in Science

Blacks in Science (BIS) promotes enrichment and interest in the world of science among African American and all interested children. This is BIS's 23rd year hosting Camp-In! BIS is a not-for-profit service organization (#501C3) in partnership with Pacific Science Center.

Who was Ron E. McNair?

Dr. Ron E. McNair was an African-American astronaut on the Space Shuttle Challenger and a scientist from North Carolina A&T University. He earned his Ph.D. at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Dr. Ron E. McNair maintained his commitment to African-American children by introducing them to science at a young age in order to help them develop to their full potential.

Experience Pacific Science Center Overnight!

As the sun sets on Seattle, the fun starts at Pacific Science Center! Come for an exciting and educational overnight adventure filled with activities and exploration to inspire the scientist in you!

THIS SPRING...

- Candy Chemistry: Savor the Science!

Savor the sugar-coated side of science as you investigate the reactive realm of chemistry! These hands-on activities are led by Pacific Science Center's experienced and enthusiastic teaching staff.

- Unstable Elements - Live Demonstration

What could be more exciting than heat, light, gas, and color change? Marvel as our expert demonstrator shows you chemical reactions in action!

- IMAX® Film and live Laser Light Show

- Plus a private opportunity to explore Pacific Science Center's world class collection of hands-on exhibits - all night long!

MEAL SERVICE

A light picnic style dinner, snack and breakfast will be served.

Special dietary restrictions are the responsibility of the individual camper.

WHAT TO BRING:

- Permission Form (signed and completed!) and Payment
- Sleeping pad, sleeping bag and pillow
- Basic toiletries (toothbrush, etc.)
- Comfortable clothing that is appropriate for the weather and that you can sleep in.

We recommend packing all of your gear in one package (such as a large garbage bag), clearly labeled with your name.

PARKING

Pacific Science Center parking is in the James Albert Claypool Memorial Garage. The garage entrance is located on Second Avenue N between Denny Way and John St. on the east side of the Seattle Center. You may pay with cash or credit card. A "Camp-In" rate is available (posted on the pay machines). This payment covers your parking until 10:00 am.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

Check-In at 5:30 pm at Pacific Science Center's main entrance, on the north side of the buildings across from the Seattle Center House. If your child is meeting his or her group at Camp-In, please escort your child into Pacific Science Center to ensure your child is united with his or her chaperone. Camp-In ends at 9:00 am; all gear must be collected and moved off-site at that time.

(Please check one)

PSC Program: Ron McNair Camp-In, 2009 (the "Program")

I understand that this release is required if my child is to participate in the Program. I can choose to keep my child out of the Program, which I voluntarily decline to do.

I authorize my child to participate in the Program. I acknowledge the inherent risks that may result from my child's participation in the Program including falls, fractures, contraction of infectious diseases, misbehavior of other children, etc., all of which may result in injury or death to my child or damage to his/her/our property. I hereby assume these risks, including those caused by simple negligence of Pacific Science Center, and release all claims held by me, my spouse and my child arising from my child's attendance and participation in the Program and accept full responsibility for the cost of all medical treatment to my child as a result of any injuries caused by or through such other risks. I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless Pacific Science Center and its officers, employees and representatives from any injuries, liabilities, claims, damages and expenses, including attorney fees, incurred by Pacific Science Center, me, my child or on behalf of my child, arising from my child's attendance and participation in the Program, with the exception of gross negligence or reckless misconduct of Pacific Science Center.

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, then the remainder of this Agreement will have full force and effect, and the invalid provision will be modified, or partially enforced, to the maximum extent permitted by Washington State law.

I have read all of the above terms and conditions and I understand and agree to be bound by them.
